-James Harris, Esq., showed us a rara aris Saturday. It was nothing more nor less than a beautiful live butterfly, caught on his premises the 25th of February. Considering that the mercury was 14° below zero that morning one would think it rather cold for butterflies.

-The selectmen have issued two general orders the past week. The one for the suppression of coasting in the streets takes in all the highways in this village on which there are hills. However pleasant the act of coasting is to the boys, it is too dangerous to be tolerated in the streets of a village. A gentleman from Boston in visiting his friend sho owns a nice, well-stocked farm in our neighborhood, was invited to look over the premses; and after examining the nice fat hogs in their roomy sty, the sleek looking cows with their eags of gold, the beautiful horses, exen and FAIRBANKS'. other stock, they came to the sheep pasture, where was a nice flock of about 500 sheep, among them a splendid buck valued at a thousand dollars. Said he, How warm they must be, how soft and comfortable their fleeces look. Yes, said the farmer they are that, but after your long walk out here in the fields, I rather guess you will think that the lounge you probably noticed in our sitting-room is soft and comfortable. I bought t of CASSINO, on St. Johnsbury Plain, a few months since, and I think that that LOUNGE and the SPRING NATTRESSES, with which I have just furnished my house, to be about the
